

Retreat Agenda – June 29, 2018. 10am to 3pm.
The Power House Studio (Formerly Charlotte Trolley Museum).
1507 Camden Road. Charlotte, NC. Directions on page 2.

1. Introductions – 5 min.
2. Staff Updates – 10 min.
  - a. CLG staff training. Raleigh, June 8
  - b. Staff vacancy
3. Brett Strum, NC State Historic Preservation Office – 30 min.
  - a. Building materials and additions
4. Design guideline proposed updates/conflict resolution – 90 min.
5. Lunch – 60 min.
6. Review of approved projects – 60 min.
7. Meeting procedure recommendations – 60 min.

Notes from February retreat

- Get information earlier to HDC/as they get read?/Modify the packet
- Round robin from Chair on questions about application
- On some applications can the HDC jump to a motion, litmus testing
- Dedicated motion makers?
- Deliver files hardcopy
- Resolve zoning issues before the hearing

The Powerhouse Studio (formerly the Trolley Museum) is located at 1507 Camden Road. The Studio does not have dedicated parking. A free public parking deck is located along the Rail Trail and East Park Avenue, the entrance is off of East Park Avenue. You can walk/bike along the trail to the studio, take light rail to the Bland Street Blue Line Station or CATS bus routes 10 or 16. Carpooling is also encouraged. For assistance please call 980.579.8075.