NO MEETING HELD (CASES WITHDRAWN BY APPLICANTS)

AGENDA

Withdrawn by Applicant (3/19/13)

CASE NO. 12-055 (APPEAL) – Application has been made by the Asian (Korean) Herald, Inc./Ki-Hyun Chun, President, (Represented by J. Cameron Furr, Jr., Esq.) for property located at 1339 Baxter Street, Tax Parcel Number 125-221-07 appealing the Zoning Administrator's interpretation that conditions set forth in an approved conditional plan are still applicable. Code Section 2.201 Definitions: Zoning District - The term "zoning districts" refers to base or underlying zoning districts, overlay districts, and conditional districts. Code Section 6.206(1) states if a petition for conditional zoning is approved, the development and use of the property shall be governed by the predetermined ordinance requirements applicable to the district's category, the approved site plan for the district, and any additional approved rules, regulations, and conditions, all of which shall constitute the zoning regulations for the approved district and are binding on the property as an amendment to these regulations and to the Zoning Maps. Code Section 10.802 states the PED will be applied to selected corridors as an overlay to existing zoning districts, but will not be applicable to the Mixed Use Development District, Uptown Mixed Use District, and the Neighborhood Services District. If the regulations and standards of this Pedestrian Overlay District conflict with those of the underlying district, those of this overlay district shall apply, with one exception.

CASE NO. 13-002 (APPEAL) – Application has been made by Parkway Advertising Corporation (Represented by Edwin R. McCoy, III, Gary W. McCoy and H. Michael McCoy) for property located on Old Dowd Road, Tax Parcel Number 115-151-21, appealing the Zoning Administrator's interpretation that two billboards have been visibly discontinued for more than 12 months and therefore have lost nonconforming status. Code Section 2.201 defines nonconforming use as any use lawfully being made of any land, building, or structure on the effective date of these regulations or on the effective date of any amendment thereto rendering such use nonconforming, which does not comply with all of the regulations of these regulations or any amendment thereto, whichever might be applicable. Code Section 7.102(6) states that where a nonconforming use is visibly discontinued for 12 consecutive months, then the use shall not be re-established or resumed, and any subsequent use of the land or structure shall conform to the requirements of these regulations. Code Section 13.102(S2) defines a sign as any object, device, or structure, or part thereof, situated outdoors, which is used to advertise, identify, display, direct, or attract attention to an object, person, institution, organization, business, product, service, event or location by any means, including words, letters, figures, designs, symbols, fixtures, colors, illumination, or projected images. Code Section 13.102(S7)(t) defines a nonconforming sign as any sign which was lawfully erected in compliance with applicable code provisions and maintained prior to the effective date of these regulations, and which fails to conform to all applicable standards and restrictions of these regulations. Code Section 13.102(S7)(x) defines an outdoor advertising sign, static as a type of outdoor advertising sign, generally, but not limited to, a rigidly assembled sign, display, or devise, that is free-standing and affixed to the ground, the primary purpose of which is to display advertising messages or information that can be changed manually in the field. Such signs commonly referred to as “billboards” are generally designed so that the copy or poster on the sign can be changed frequently and the advertising space is for lease. Table 13.111(5) states there shall be at least 1000 linear feet spacing distance between outdoor advertising signs on the same side of the street.
